

INTERNATIONAL Lean Six Sigma

Conference 2019

21st - 23rd
JANUARY

Group Pricing from £295 pp

£395

(refreshments and lunch included)

Accommodation available for an extra charge at the venue, subject to availability

Master Black Belts, Black Belts, Green Belts, and Yellow Belts come together this January to network, learn from the most experienced practitioners in Lean Six Sigma, and exchange ideas. The International Lean Six Sigma Institute (ILSSI) will host the Lean Six Sigma Conference in 2019.

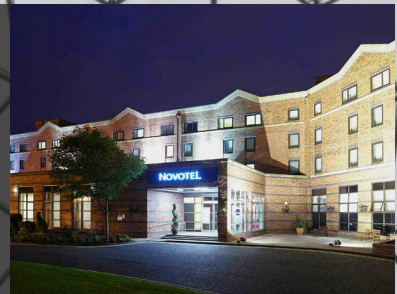

Internationally recognized speakers will address the crowd at this leading event for process improvement professionals. The 2019 event aims to be the most comprehensive Lean Six Sigma conference yet.

The conference attracts international and national experts, representatives from all government, for-profit and not-for-profit organizations to share experiences.

at Novotel Newcastle International Airport

Ponteland Road
Kenton / Kingston Park
NE3 3HZ

*parking available on site

Guest SPEAKERS

Dr Salman Al Mishari
Root Cause Analysis
Problem Solving

John Dennis
Lean Manufacturing
Pull / Flow and Kanban

Chris Alcock
Lean Six Sigma Projects
DMAIC and PDCA

Adam L. Bowden
Kaizen /
Continuous Improvement

Dr. Fabio D'Agostino
Design of Experiments
DOE

Paul Allen
Statistical Process Control
Control Charts

About International Lean Six Sigma Institute

The ILSSI was founded in the UK with a focus on providing guidance and standards for both Lean and Six Sigma principles, tools and techniques. Today it's also renowned for its training and certification programs as well as its auditing and consulting services.